

SEPTEMBER 10 & 11, 2016
A CULTURAL COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

Mountain View Celebrates 46th Annual Art & Wine Festival
Colossal Crowds Expected For Silicon Valley's World-Class Art & Music Festival
Soak in the Cool Castro Street Vibe at "A Festival Like No Other"

The vibrant, magnificent city of Mountain View has evolved in a big way over the last 46 years. A population boom. The arrival of Shoreline Amphitheater as a major concert venue. The amazing growth of Silicon Valley and Mountain View's emergence as its epicenter. The transformation of a vibrant downtown district with restaurants, shops, cafes, bookstores and performing arts center. And, last but not least, the Art & Wine Festival's rise to become one of America's premier art festivals. And it's that time of year: it's Mountain View's time to get festive and this year we celebrate #46!

Yep, it's no secret. Festival fans know the Mountain View Art & Wine Festival is the crème de la crème on the Bay Area festival scene. Voted "Best Festival in the South Bay" multiple times by readers of Metro and still hitting on all cylinders better than ever, this year's 46th annual festival, September 9-10 promises to be a "festival like no other".

An authentic and moveable feast for the senses. The cool, vibrant, multicultural Castro Street vibe. Exceptional handcrafted work by 600 of America's top artists and craftmakers. Stellar live music on stage and street throughout downtown including the new Saturday Sunset Concert featuring the Bay's best classic rock and roll band The Houserockers and the return of mega-hit Salsa Sunday with Orquesta Borinquen and Ruckatan. Fabulous food and festive drink with seasonal craft beer, premium wine, refreshing sangria, mimosas, fresh-fruit margaritas and signature cocktails. The Comcast Pigskin Party Lounge with giant screen TV. Artisan specialty food purveyors. Home and garden exhibits. Health and wellness displays. An organic and green products showcase. Tons of fun and games for kids. An affordable, sun-splashed, memorable, leisure-filled weekend.

Widely considered one of America's top art festivals, an enormous throng of art lovers is expected to pour onto Castro Street in Silicon Valley's epicenter for this "Cultural Community Celebration" presented by the Mountain View Chamber of Commerce. Hours are 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free.
